The following Georgia Professional Standards Commission sperformance evaluation of Columbus State University First Year Teachers is outlined below. The rating is based on a completer average performance scale of 1 to 4 (4 being the highest level).

is a nationally developed performance-based assessment of teacher candidates. ; state average 3.04 and similar educator preparation provider average 3.0 is Georgia s standardized content assessment, required for teacher certification in most fields. ; state average 262 and similar educator preparation provider average 261 is a system of classroom teacher observations performed by administrators, collected by GaDOE and used in Georgia steacher evaluations. ; state average 20.1 and similar educator preparation provider average 19.9 Response 18% is a 31-item survey administered to employers about new teachers capability and preparedness, based on the ten InTASC Standards, which form the basis of the teacher preparation program curricula. ; state average 3.19 and similar educator preparation provider average 3.16 Response 14% are indicators of teaching effectiveness.

is a 43-item survey of program completers administered near the end of the ; state average 3.28 and similar

74% of CSU completers scored at Level 3 or above after their first year for Academic Year 2018 new teacher s first year in the classroom, based on the ten InTASC Standards.

educator preparation provider average 3.23